

Education seen as driver of Chinese property buying in Malaysia

Tuesday, 21 Feb 2018

- KUALA LUMPUR (Feb 21): Education is expected to become a larger driver of Chinese property buying in Malaysia by 2025, said Juwai.com, noting that by then Malaysia plans to host 250,000 international students, a near sevenfold increase from 36,000 in 2014.
- The leading Chinese international real estate website said that compared to other parts of Southeast Asia, Malaysia attracts more buyers from China who are purchasing properties for their own use.
- Read more at <https://www.edgeprop.my/content/1285864/education-seen-driver-chinese-property-buying-malaysia>
- (Source: Edge Prop)